

Picture Framing

We provide professional custom framing for original artwork, photographs, reprints, and documents, crochet and shadow boxes for a variety of mediums and requests. Our framing products are hand made and we offer a variety of species and molding profiles in Oaks, Walnut, Cherry, Cypress, African Sepele, Ash, Mahogany and many other to name a few. Our craftsmanship has been developed over a number of years and each frame is crafted from original hard wood, hand sanded, assembled and then are ready for light sanding and staining with the stain of your choice. We then seal all frames are then sealed with polyurethane for long lasting beauty. We also ship-assembled frames unstained for customers to lightly sand, stain seal and matt their own pictures and art work.

Our framing process provides our customers with substantial savings over national and commercial framing shops ranging from 30 to 40% or greater depending on the requirements. All picture frames used to matt our customer pictures include glass or acrylic, a protective dust cover and wire hanger and include custom sizes.

Our picture frame mats are hand cut and are available in either single or double matting. We also cut oval mats and can embellish mats with artistic grooving to enhance pictures or documents. We can assist you in selecting the mats that make your picture “pop” or match your décor at your request. We also frame crochet and other fabrics that have ranged from football jerseys to christening gowns. In addition, we offer a variety of Shadow Boxes that will accommodate shelves, coins, cups, and silverware etc., among the many other items that are popular shadow box contents today.

We also frame original artwork i.e. watercolor, acrylic and pastels and create the picture frames that match the requirements of the rabbet depth of stretched canvas. Our picture framing orders have been shipped throughout the United States and we can assist you in your framing projects whether you live in Michigan, California or Puerto Rico.
